A TOOL FOR ENHANCING NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS

Lessons Learned Information Sharing (LLIS.gov) is the Department of Homeland Security's national, online network of lessons learned and best practices for the emergency response and homeland security communities. This initiative, sponsored by the Department of Homeland Security and the Memorial Institute for the Prevention of Terrorism (MIPT), helps emergency response providers and homeland security officials prevent, protect against, respond to, and recover from terrorist attacks, major disasters, and other emergencies. LLIS.gov provides Federal, State, and local responders with information and front-line expertise on effective planning, training, and operational practices.

LLIS.gov at a Glance

- Over 36,000 registered members
- Over 10,000 documents, including more than 1,500 state and local plans and 470 after-action reports
- Secure message boards and collaboration tools
- Targeted information on current homeland security topics

SCHOOL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT PLANNING

LLIS.gov's School Emergency Management Planning page provides a wealth of school emergency management information and tools to enhance the preparedness of our nation's schools. Examples of LLIS.gov Lessons Learned and Practice Notes include:

- School Evacuations: Planning Alternative Evacuation Sites
- Special Weapons and Tactics Teams: Emergency Medical Training
- School Safety: Improving Information Sharing between School District and Law Enforcement Officials
- Hostile Situations: Increasing Protection for Emergency Medical Personnel

LLIS.gov is gathering lessons from the Virginia Tech tragedy to develop content on topics such as layered alert systems, phased personnel release, and wide area lockdowns.

The School Emergency Management Planning page also includes school emergency management plans from across the nation, after-action reports, checklists, templates, and worksheets such as:

- Building a Disaster-Resistant University
- University of Washington Emergency Response Management Plan
- Platte Canyon Shooting: Report of Investigation
- Sample Pandemic Influenza Brochure for Schools
- Proactive Guide for the Threat of Terrorism in Schools
- Colorado School Violence Prevention and Student Discipline Manual, Revised Edition
- Emergency Preparedness Considerations for First Responders in a University Environment
